DECEASED	§	POTTER COUNTY, TEXAS

ORDER TRANSFERRING CONTESTED PROBATE MATTER OR MATTERS

On the date set forth herein below, this Court entered the following Order:

IT IS ORDERED that the contested matter or matters in this cause are transferred as provided for in Texas Estates Code §32.004 to County Court at Law #_____.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the County Clerk shall promptly notify all attorneys of record, interested parties, or necessary parties of the transfer and other necessary and relevant information, including a copy of this Order. At the same time, the County Court at Law to which the contested matter or matters are transferred shall be notified of same, which will include hand delivering a copy of this Order to the designated County Court at Law Judge.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED as provided in Texas Estates Code §32.004(b) that because only the contested matter or matters in the cause are transferred, that upon the resolution of the contested matter or matters, such matter or matters shall be returned to the County Court for further proceedings not inconsistent with the Orders of the County Court at Law.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that all matters pertaining to the probate cause which do not specifically pertain to the contested matter or matters transferred to the County Court at Law shall remain in the County Court; and all requirements pertaining to same such as administrative matters, accountings, bond settings, and other matters not restricted by nor directly connected to the contested matter or matters shall continue in the County Court.
