COUNTY OF POTTER, TEXAS
EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

The County of Potter is seeking a qualified individual to fill the following position.

Managed Assigned Counsel Director of the Office of the Potter/Armstrong County Public Defender/Managed Assigned Counsel (PD/MAC)

JOB DESCRIPTION:

Potter and Armstrong Counties, located in the Panhandle of Texas, are implementing a hybrid indigent defense program that combines a Public Defender division with a Managed Assigned Counsel division. Each division will be separately managed its own Director. This brand-new program will be built from the ground up under the direction of the two Directors. Funding to support the program’s implementation has already been secured through the Texas Indigent Defense Commission and the two Commissioners’ Courts.

In general, the Managed Assigned Counsel (MAC) Director will oversee every aspect of the Counties’ managed assigned counsel program. The MAC Director will also serve as the primary mentor to the PD/MAC’s Fellowship attorneys. The Fellowship program is essentially a 1½ - 2-year paid, practicum for newly graduated lawyers aspiring to become criminal defense attorneys. The MAC Director will supervise the employees of the Managed Assigned Counsel division of the PD/MAC. The MAC Director will work in coordination with the Director of the PD division.

The two counties have created an implementation plan for the establishment of this new office which can be found on this link: Potter/Armstrong County Indigent Defense Plan.

SUPERVISES:

- 3 – 5 Fellowship Attorneys
- A MAC Manager (or controller)
- Support Staff Person
- Mental Health/Social Services Coordinator
- Contracted Investigators

REPORTS TO:

This position will be employed by Potter County but reports to the Potter/Armstrong County PD/MAC Oversight Board, a non-partisan body created by the Commissioners’ Courts to independently oversee and govern the operations of the Potter/Armstrong County PD/MAC. Among the authorities granted the Board by the Courts is the hiring/firing of the PD/MAC’s Directors.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Ensures the functions and services of the Managed Assigned Counsel (MAC) division are provided in accordance with the requirements of State and Federal Constitutions, State and Federal Law, and State Bar of Texas ethical rules.
Managed Assigned Counsel Posting
